

Artmarket news

The latest news on the Australian and International art market.

Ai Weiwei at the bronze foundry in Chengdu, China 2010
Courtesy: AW Asia © The artist

Ai Weiwei's sculpture, Circle of Animals/ Zodiac Heads is on display in the historic courtyard of Somerset House, London during May/June. The installation comprises 12 bronze animal heads that are recreations of the traditional Chinese zodiac sculptures that once appeared on the fountain at Yuanming Yuan, an imperial retreat in Beijing. To coincide with his work there will be a series of talks inspired by Ai Weiwei's practice and political activism.