

LONDON, ENGLAND - MAY 11: A woman examines sculptures in the series entitled 'Circle of Animals/Zodiac Heads' by Chinese artist Ai Weiwei in the courtyard of Somerset House on May 11, 2011 in London, England. The installation comprises of 12 bronze heads of animals which feature in the Chinese zodiac. The artist Ai Weiwei, who is outspoken in his criticism of the Chinese administration, was detained by authorities in Beijing on April 3, 2011 and his whereabouts remain unknown.

A sculpture entitled 'Circle of Animals/Zodiac Heads' by Chinese artist Ai Weiwei is pictured at Somerset House in London, on May 12, 2011. The sculpture comprises of 12 monumental bronze animal heads, re-creations of traditional Chinese Zodiac sculptures. Each sculpture weighs about 800 pounds (362 Kilos) and is about 10 feet high.